The beginning

All stand. The lector stands in the middle, before the altar. He turns to the tabernacle, bows, and sings:

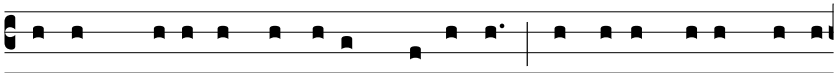

Jube Dómine bene-dí-ce-re.

Pray, Lord a blessing.

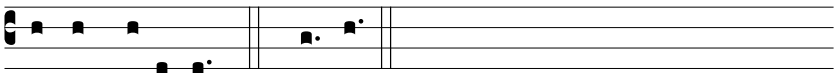

[If the celebrant is a priest, the lector sings Jube, domne benedicere and bows to the priest, asking his blessing.]

The celebrant intones the blessing:

Noctem qui-é-tam et finem perféctum concédât nobis Dómi-

A quiet night and a perfect end grant unto us

The lector rises, and, facing the altar, sings the short lesson, genuflecting at the words Tu autem...:

All make the sign of the cross as the celebrant sings:

Ÿ. Adju-tó-ri-um nostrum in nómine Dómi-ni.

Our help is in the name of the Lord.

R. Qui fe-cit caelum et terram.

Who made heaven and earth.

Pater noster. altogether in silence.

Then, if the celebrant is a priest, he says the Confiteor entirely recto tono, in a low voice. The Choir replies with Misereátur tui.

If there is no priest present all recite the Confiteor as follows:

Confiteor Deo omnipoténti, beátæ Mariæ semper Vírgini, beáto Michaéli Archángelo, beáto Joánni Baptístæ, sanctis Apóstolis Petro et Paulo, et ómnibus Sanctis, [(if a priest presides) et tibi, Pater:] quia peccávi nimis cogitatíone, verbo et ópere: (strike breast three times) mea culpa, mea culpa, mea máxima culpa. Ideo precor beátam Mariám semper Vírginem, beátum Michaélem Archángelum, beátum Joánnem Baptístam, sanctos Apóstolos Petrum et Paulum, et omnes Sanctos, [(if a priest presides) et te, Pater,] oráre pro me ad Dóminum Deum nostrum.

I confess to Almighty God, to blessed Mary ever Virgin, to blessed Michael the Archangel, to blessed John the Baptist, to the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, to all the Saints, [and to you, Father,] that I have sinned exceedingly, in thought, word, and deed: (strike breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault. Therefore I beseech blessed Mary ever Virgin, blessed Michael the Archangel, blessed John the Baptist, the holy Apostles Peter and Paul, all the Saints, [and you, Father,] to pray for me to the Lord our God.

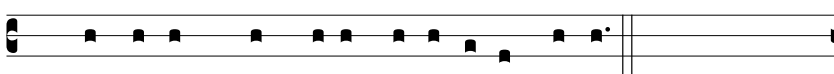

The celebrant next says: Misereátur nostri omnipotens Deus, et dimíssis peccátis nostris, perdúcat nos ad vitam ætérnam. R. Amen.

May Almighty God have mercy upon you, forgive you your sins, and bring you to life everlasting. Amen.

Indulgéntiam, ✠ absolutíonem, et remissíonem peccatórum nostrórum, tríbuat nobis omnipotens et miséricors Dóminus. R. Amen.

May the Almighty and merciful Lord grant us pardon, ✠ absolution, and remission of our sins. Amen.

The celebrant then sings:

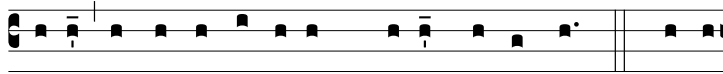

ŷ. Converté ✠ nos Dé-us sa-lu-tá-ris nóster.

Turn us then, O God our Saviour.

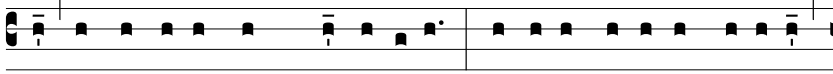

R. Et avérte i-ram tu-am a no-bis.

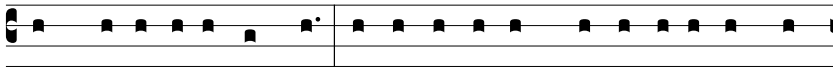

And let thy anger cease from us.

The Psalter

Sunday and Feasts

The celebrant intones the antiphon, either Miserere most of the year or Alleluia during Paschaltide. The cantor may pre-intone the antiphon for the celebrant according to custom. All take up the antiphon. The cantors return to the middle, genuflect, then intone the first verse of the psalm to the asterisk. They bow to the side of the choir which is to continue the verse (usually the celebrant's side), genuflect, bow to one another, and go their places as all in choir sit, cover with the biretta and proceed with the psalm.

Thou hast put away my acquaintance far from me: they have set me an abomination to themselves.

9. Tráditus sum, et non egrediébar : * óculi mei languérunt præ inópia.

I was delivered up, and came not forth: My eyes languished through poverty.

10. Clamávi ad te, Dómine, tota die : * expándi ad te manus me-as.

All the day I cried to thee, O Lord: I stretched out my hands to thee.

11. Numquid mórtuis fácies mirabília : * aut médici suscitábunt, et confitebúntur tibi?

Wilt thou shew wonders to the dead? or shall physicians raise to life, and give praise to thee?

12. Numquid narrábit áliquis in sepúlcro misericórdiam tuam, * et veritátem tuam in perditiónē?

Shall any one in the sepulchre declare thy mercy: and thy truth in destruction?

13. Numquid cognoscéntur in ténebris mirabília tua, * et justítia tua in terra obliviónis?

Shall thy wonders be known in the dark; and thy justice in the land of forgetfulness?

14. Et ego ad te, Dómine, clamávi : * et mane orátio mea prævé-niet te.

But I, O Lord, have cried to thee: and in the morning my prayer shall prevent thee.

15. Ut quid, Dómine, repéllis oratió-nem meam : * avértis fáciem tuam a me?

Lord, why castest thou off my prayer: why turnest thou away thy face from me?

3. Qui propitiátur ómnibus iniquitátibus tuis : * qui sanat omnes infirmitátes tuas.

Who forgiveth all thy iniquities: who healeth all thy diseases.

4. Qui rédimít de intéritu vitam tuam : * qui corónat te in misericórdia et miseratiónebus.

Who redeemeth thy life from destruction: who crowneth thee with mercy and compassion.

5. Qui replet in bonis desidérium tuum : * renovábitur ut áquilæ juvéntus tua.

Who satisfieth thy desire with good things: thy youth shall be renewed like the eagle's.

6. Fáciens misericórdias Dóminus : * et judícium ómnibus injúriam patiéntibus.

The Lord doth mercies, and judgment for all that suffer wrong.

7. Notas fecit vias suas Móysi, * filiis Israél voluntátes suas.

He hath made his ways known to Moses: his wills to the children of Israel.

8. Miserátor, et miséricors Dóminus : * longánimis et multum miséricors.

The Lord is compassionate and merciful: longsuffering and plenteous in mercy.

9. Non in perpétuum irascétur : * neque in ætérnum comminábitur.

He will not always be angry: nor will he threaten for ever.

10. Non secúndum peccáta nostra fecit nobis : * neque secúndum iniquitátes nostras retribuit nobis.

He hath not dealt with us according to our sins: nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

11. Quóniam secúndum altitúdinem cæli a terra : * corroborávit misericórdiam suam super timéntes se.

For according to the height of the heaven above the earth: he hath strengthened his mercy towards them that fear him.

12. Quantum distat ortus ab occidénte : * longe fecit a nobis iniquitátes nostras.

As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our iniquities from us.

13. Glória Pátri, et Filio, * et Spirítui Sáncto.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

14. Sicut érat in princípío, et núnc, et sémper, * et in saécula saeculórum. Amen.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

2. Recordátus est quóniam pulvis sumus : † homo, sicut fœnum dies ejus, * tamquam flos agri sic efflorébit.

He remembereth that we are dust: Man's days are as grass, as the flower of the field so shall he flourish.

3. Quóniam spíritus pertransíbit in illo, et non subsístet : * et non

For the spirit shall pass in him, and he shall not be: and he shall know his place no more.

4. Misericórdia autem Dómini ab ætérno, * et usque in ætérnum

But the mercy of the Lord is from eternity and unto eternity upon them that fear him:

Then the celebrant intones the Marian Antiphon of the season: Alma Redemptoris Mater for Advent and Christmas through to 1st February, p. ??; Ave Regina Caelorum for the Purification of Our Lady 2nd February to Holy Wednesday, p. ??; Regina Caeli for Easter, p. ?? and lastly the Salve Regina, p. ??.

Outside of Eastertide, on Monday–Friday, without exception even for greater feasts, all, except the Officiant, now kneel for the Final Marian Antiphon. On Saturday and Sunday nights, all continue standing. During Eastertide, all stand every night for the Regina coeli. The Officiant stands and intones the applicable Marian Antiphon according to the Season, after which, he also kneels if it be Monday–Friday outside of Eastertide. All continue singing the Marian Antiphon straight through with no alternations.

Each Marian Antiphon has a Solemn Tone and a Simple Tone. The Solemn Tone is sung on all Saturday and Sunday nights, on all First and Second Class Feasts (when the Office is of the Feast), and on each night during the Octaves of Christmas and Pentecost. The Simple Tone is sung on all other days inclusive of all Ferial Days of any rank (e.g. Ash Wednesday, weekdays of Holy Week).

After the Marian antiphon is finished, the Cantor says the applicable versicle and all make the corresponding the response. Then the Officiant alone stands and says the prayer to which all respond Amen.

All making the Sign of the Cross, the Officiant says in low, recto tono voice, the Divinum auxilium... and respond Amen. Thus ends Compline according to the normal arrangement of the 1962 Breviarium Romanum.

Sacred Triduum

On Maundy Thursday, Compline should be celebrated after the altars have been stripped, and on Good Friday at some time after the Solemn Liturgy. No candles should be lit, and there should be no singing. On Holy Saturday, Compline is celebrated only by those who have not attended the Vigil.

Whoever presides should give a sign for the examination of conscience to begin, if this be customary, and the Hour begins simply with the Confiteor, Misereatur and Indulgentiam on a monotone. The first psalm is simply commenced (Cum invocarem p. ??). There are no antiphons, and the Gloria Patri is omitted. The voice is dropped a whole tone on the last syllable of each verse of the psalms.

After the three psalms the Canticle Nunc dimittis is recited in the same manner p. ??, no antiphons, voice lowered on last syllable.

On Maundy Thursday, all then kneel and recite together the following:

Christus factus est pro nobis obédiens usque ad mortem.

Christ was made for us obedient unto death.

On Good Friday is said in place of this:

Christus factus est pro nobis obédiens usque ad mortem, mortem autem crucis.

Christ was made for us obedient unto death, death on the cross.

All say the Pater Noster silently

The Collect is said without Oremus again dropping the voice on the last syllable as in the psalms.

Vísita, quæsumus, Dómine, habitatiónem istam, et omnes insídias inimíci ab ea lónge repélle: † Ángeli tui sancti hábitent in ea, qui nos in pace custódiant; * et benedíctio tua sit super nos semper.

Visit we beseech thee, O Lord, this dwelling, and drive far from it the snares of the enemy. Let thy holy angels dwell herein to preserve us in peace and let thy blessing be always upon us.

The conclusion Per Dóminum. is said silently on Thursday and Friday but aloud on Saturday.

All then rise and leave in silence.

All Souls' Day

Psalm 122.

To thee have I lifted up my eyes, who dwellest in heaven.

Behold as the eyes of the servants are on the hands of their masters,

As the eyes of the handmaid are on the hands of her mistress: so are our eyes unto the Lord our God, until he have mercy on us.

Have mercy on us, O Lord, have mercy on us: for we are greatly filled with contempt.

5. Quia multum repléta est ánima nostra : * oppróbrium abundántibus, et despéctio supérbis.

For our soul is greatly filled: we are a reproach to the rich, and contempt to the proud.

When my spirit failed me, then thou newest my paths.

4. In via hac, qua ambulábam, * abscondérunt láqueum mihi.

In this way wherein I walked, they have hidden a snare for me.

5. Considerábam ad délixteram, et vidébam : * et non erat qui cognósceret me.

I looked on my right hand, and beheld, and there was no one that would know me.

6. Périit fuga a me : * et non est qui requírat ánimam meam.

And enter not into judgment with thy servant: for in thy sight no man living shall be justified.

For the enemy hath persecuted my soul: he hath brought down my life to the earth.

4. Collocávit me in obscúris sicut mórtuos saéculi : * et anxiátus est super me spíritus meus, in me turbátum est cor meum.
